State Contract Search Engine Answers

Windy Aphayrath & Tara Eutsler

The Division of Purchasing is aware that non-State users are experiencing issues with the State Contract Search returning search results. They may be receiving a "No Search Results" message when they know there are contracts that exist for a specific portfolio. This is an issue that may continue until the new search engine is available.

Because of this error, customers are encouraged to reference the State Contract Spreadsheet document that is available for download on the State Contracts page on the website. This spreadsheet contains all active state cooperative contracts and is updated and re-posted weekly.

One drawback to the spreadsheet is that it does not provide customers with the actual contract or summary pages. If a contract is located on the spreadsheet and the non-State user is unable to access the contract by searching for the specific contract number, the customer may contact any employee of the Division of Purchasing for a copy of the summary sheet or the contract.

The Division of Purchasing has contracted with developer to create a new search engine, and while that development is on schedule, it's not anticipated to go live until March 2018. Until then, we thank our non-State users for their patience and will assist to the best of our ability.

Welcome Contract Analysts to

THE TEAM

The Division of Purchasing welcomes four new contract analysts to our team: Think Doan, Cody Garcia, Blake Porter, and Rick Straw.

Think Doan holds a J.D. from the University of Utah's S.J. Quinney College of Law and a B.A. in Biology from Westminster College. During his time at the S.J. Quinney College of Law, he clerked for the Child and Family Support Division of the Attorney General's Office. Most recently, he served as Corporate Counsel to a small litigation support company based out of downtown Salt Lake City. Outside of work, he enjoys time with the family, remodeling, and puttering around the house.

Cody Garcia received his Juris Doctor from S.J. Quinney College of Law at the University of Utah. During his time in school, he worked as a law clerk for the Attorney General's Office in the Division of Child and Family Support. He also spent time as an intern at the West Valley Prosecutor's Office and The Utah Court of Appeals for Judge Roth. He is a fan of Real Salt Lake and the Utah Jazz. Cody used to like playing basketball but has torn his ACL in both legs. As a result, he is trying to learn the game of golf.

Blake Porter received his Juris Doctor degree from the University of San Francisco School of Law. Following graduation he worked overseas in Cambodia, including working for Rajah & Tann Asia which is the largest law firm in Southeast Asia. Blake is excited to be back in his home state of Utah and brings experience working on complex international transactions. Blake loves spending time with his wife and son, especially going disc golfing.

Rick Straw hails from the great state of Wyoming and completed his undergraduate degree in Economics from the University of Utah, and his Juris Doctorate from the University of Wyoming School of Law. Prior to coming to Purchasing Division, Rick worked for a large title company performing a niche real estate transaction that defers capital gains tax.

Welcome, gentlemen. We are looking forward to working with each of you.
